Nestled along the Cocheco River, Garrison Cove offers sophisticated living with a blend of coastal and urban flavor. Located less than two miles from historic downtown Dover, this community features 11 tranquil, wooded homesites ranging from 0.46 to 1.58 +/- acres. Homeowners can utilize their “play” time wisely with in-community private water access and boat slips on the beautiful Cocheco River. Alternatively, entertainment options abound with downtown amenities such as Henry Law Park, the Children’s Museum of New Hampshire, and countless local restaurants, shops, and businesses.
